Something we do because we have to. Something we do because we like to. Things which attract and sustain our attention spontaneously are our Interests. If our Interests are developed along their Natural Channels leading on to allied Occupations, our work will be an ever growing source of pleasure to us then the distinctions between work and play vanishes and work become real play. It is convenient for the purpose of vocational guidance to classify human interests under a few heading such as Intellectual, Practical, Social athletic and Aesthetic Interest.

Those who are fascinated by the Intellectual activities, form the first group. They are inspired by ideas and theories and pursue the study of the subjects for its own sake. Professors, authors lawyers and research workers are examples.
